23-CENT INCREASE ASKED OF J. & L.

Wage Demand May Set Pattern For Nation's Steelworkers

(By Associated Press) PITTSBURGH, April 18.—The first definite wage increase demand coming from CIO United Steelworkers' contract negotiations was disclosed today—a 23-cent hourly basic pay in the industry is 96¢ cents an hour.

A spokesman for the firm described the 23-cent figure as an "overall" one, as besides a flat pay increase it includes "a lot of other things." Holiday pay provisions presumably were among them.

The pay demand conceivably could set an industry-wide pattern. Present basic pay in the industry is 96¢ cents an hour.

Jones & Laughlin, fourth largest producer, employs 25,000 workers in the Pittsburgh and Cleveland areas.

Negotiators for U. S. Steel Corp. and the steelworkers declined comment on the disclosure. However, it was learned that J. & L. had been pressing the union for a definite pay demand.

Meanwhile another big CIO union—the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers—obtained a 15-cent hourly pay increase from the Westinghouse Electric corporation, affecting over 75,000 persons.

It was the same amount as the union obtained from General Motors Corp. electrical divisions Monday.

GRAND JURY BACKS COUNTY JAIL PLANS

LISBON, April 18.—Eventually, if every person in Columbiana serves upon a grand jury and votes their convictions after visiting the Mahoning county jail where this county's prisoners are boarded, this county may vote for and build a jail of its own.

Such is the conclusion following the report of the April term grand jury, which like every investigating body since the old county prison was razed in 1940 recommended that plans be drawn up and submitted to the voters as a step looking toward construction of a county jail.

County commissioners have announced that the matter will be submitted to the voters next fall, but the amount of the levy or bond issue, which ever it may be, has not as yet been determined although a half-mill levy for a three year period has been discussed. John E. Smith, president of the board stated.

Bulk Of Ford Estate Goes To Family-Built Foundation

(By Associated Press) DETROIT, April 18.—The bulk of the huge estate of Henry Ford will go to the family-organized Ford foundation.

This was disclosed today by Ford family counsel as the will was filed for probate. Left undiscovered was the actual amount of the estate and the probable inheritance and estate taxes to be paid.

The estate of the famed industrialist who died April 7 of a cerebral hemorrhage has been variously estimated at from $200,000,000 to $500,000,000.

The will, dated Feb. 3, 1936, left all the voting stock held by the elder Ford in the big Ford Motor Co. in five equal shares to his son, Edsel B. Ford, and his four grandchildren, with the share left to Edsel to go to the grandchildren following Edsel's death.

Edsel Ford died in May, 1943. Wife Gets Family Home In turning all the non-voting stock, representing the bulk of the estate over to the foundation Ford devised:

"To this foundation I give and bequeath all of my share of stock in the Ford Motor Co., which are non-voting shares known as class 'A' stock, save such as it may be necessary to sell to pay the obligations of my estate; the foundation to have full and unequal title, without limitation, to such shares, with all the incidents thereto, including the right to expend therefor the principal or the income therefrom for the purposes of such corporation."

Ford added that all of his real estate, other than the family home, "Fairlane," where he died April 7, should go to the Ford Motor Co. under the same stipulations as were made in the bequests to the Ford foundation.

His widow, Clara B. Ford, for whom he said "I have heretofore provided generously," retains Fairlane, and everything used in connection with it, "plus any other article or articles of a personal nature, which she may wish to retain because of their sentimental value."

Mrs. Clara Ford is named executrix of the will to replace Edsel Ford, in a codicil signed after the latter's death.

No other specific bequests were listed in the will. To the document was appended the following statement of Mrs. Clara B. Ford:

"I, Clara Ford, wife of Henry Ford, testator in the foregoing will, do hereby acknowledge that full provision has been made for me by said testator during his lifetime, and I have agreed with him, in consideration of the provisions made therein, and hereby consent and agree to accept provisions made in the foregoing will in lieu of dower in his estate and in lieu of any other rights to which I might by law be otherwise entitled."

Thirty-seven more dollars were added today to the Baptist church building fund campaign as the church officers prepared to launch a concerted public subscription drive. The total received to date is $984.

Sanctioned by the Business Bureau, the campaign will be an effort to contact different organizations and businesses for donations which will help the Baptists erect a church building to replace the one razed by fire April 5.

SENATE GETS LABOR BILL FROM HOUSE

Far-Reaching Measure Is Passed By More Than Two-Thirds Majority

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 18.—The house labor bill, laced with tight checkreins on unions and strikes—and backed by more than enough votes to override a presidential veto—landed in the senate today.

It got a cautious reception there. The senate expects to start debate Wednesday on its own bill which locks many of the union curbs the house voted. Chairman Taft (R-Ohio) of the senate labor committee hopes to add some on the floor.

The house passed its bill late yesterday by a lop-sided roll call vote of 308 to 107. A powerful coalition of Republicans and southern Democrats pushed it through, after rejecting all amendments to tone it down.

While this was happening, the senate committee voted 11 to 2 approval of its legislation. Senators Pepper (D-Fla.) and Murray (D-Mont.) dissented after playing a major role in a rewrite job which stripped the bill of several proposed curbs on union activities.

Similar Provisions In some respects the house bill and the senate committee measure are alike. For example, both would: Ban the closed shop, which compels the boss to hire only union members.

Permit the more common union shop where a majority of workers vote for it, and—in the case of the house bill—where employers want it. Under union shop agreements, workers must join the union shortly after they are hired.

Authorize court injunctions to stop or block national "paralysis" strikes, such as a coal or telephone strike. The injunctions would stay in effect during compulsory mediation.

Set up a new federal mediation agency, independent of the Labor Department.

Make unions liable for unfair labor practices. Employers already are.

House Bill Objectives There the parallel on major provisions stops short. The house bill, but not the senate's would:

1. Outlaw jurisdictional strikes and secondary boycotts. Jurisdictional strikes usually stem from disputes between unions as to which should do given work. A secondary boycott is a refusal by one union to handle the products of another.

The senate bill procedure on such strikes and boycotts is to make them unfair labor practices. This means the National Labor Relations board could obtain an injunction when a union failed to obey an order to drop the practice).

2. Ban industry-wide bargaining. Turn to SENATE, Page 6

CRISIS PAST, HOWEVER, SAYS POLICE HEAD

Estimates of Dead Still Range Up to 650; Relatives Crowd Morgues

(By Associated Press) TEXAS CITY, Tex., April 18.—Flames roared on for the third day on the industrial edge of this explosion-smashed gulf port today, but Police Chief W. L. Laddis said that the crisis which had gripped the city since Wednesday morning was past.

Estimates of deaths still ranged up to 650 and injuries around 3,000 persons. Property damage estimates ran from $50,000,000 to $100,000,000.

The major conflagration today was at the vast Humble Oil company's storage tank farm at the south of the city. Apprehensive residents still watched the boiling oil fires, but Laddis asserted: "I believe that all danger is gone."

Rocked By New Blasts Five or six storage tanks of approximately 55,000 gallons capacity had exploded and burned since 4 p. m. yesterday. Five other major blasts had rocked the city at intervals since 9:12 a. m. Wednesday.

The burning nitrate-laden French freighter Grand Camp exploded Wednesday morning to set off another blast at the huge Monsanto chemical plant two minutes later. Chains of fire swept through the city in an aftermath.

For the most part, fires were left to burn themselves out, while rescue workers hunted through huge piles of twisted wreckage for the estimated hundreds of persons believed to have been buried.

Twisted hunks of steel and other debris rained down on the industrial section of the city early yesterday when a second nitrate-laden ship, the High Flyer, exploded, sinking a third, the Wilson P. Keene.

A "state of emergency" ruled the city as Gov. Beauford H. Jester issued a proclamation which also placed all law enforcement groups under the direction of Col. Homer Garrison, director of the Texas department of public safety.

Hundreds of persons who had fled in terror Wednesday slipped back into town yesterday, to stand before Turn to CRISIS, Page 6

Hall suffered cuts of the forehead and a bruised shoulder. Passengers with him, Patty Ann Thomas, 18, of Lisbon and Mrs. Irene Arnold, 28, of Lisbon, also were injured. All were brought to Salem City hospital.

Miss Thomas has bruises of the body and Mrs. Arnold a broken right leg and abrasions.

Dead were four children of Mr. and Mrs. Jordan, ranging in age from one to eight, and Mrs. George Jordan, about 60, their grandmother.

USE METERS, BUREAU PLEA

Business Bureau Raps Delay By City; Extra Police To Be Named

The Salem Business Bureau today passed a resolution requesting that the city put the parking meters into effect "without delay or not later than May 1."

The action came at a meeting of the Bureau's directors this morning and copies of the resolution were sent to Safety Director C. E. Phillips, Mayor R. R. Johnson and City Solicitor Henry L. Reese.

It read in full, "resolved that in as much as the parking meters have been installed for approximately two months, we request that the officials in charge of parking meters have them in operation without delay or not later than May 1."

Two Extra Policemen Needed City officials now have all preparations completed toward the use of the new meters with the exception of the appointment of two additional policemen to the force.

When the appointments are made Patrolmen Martin Lutsch and Howard Forney are to be assigned to the day shift to handle the enforcement and collections of the meters, Police Chief Nerr Gaunt has previously announced.

The two new men, bringing the force to seven patrolmen and two officers, will be assigned to the night force, replacing Forney and Lutsch.

Chief Gaunt had city employees recently rush painting of the space markings at the meters in preparation for the beginning of enforcement. That work, with the exception of some poles which must be painted, is completed.

A Business Bureau spokesman said the group felt that the city was unnecessarily losing a considerable amount of income by the delay in operation.

Legislation governing the meters and appropriations to finance the addition to the force were passed by city council at its April 1 meeting.

No Hope In Moscow

The United States delegation to Moscow has torn its diplomatic fingernails on the Kremlin's obstructionism and soon will come home. The denouement was discontinued in advance. The only thing that could have surprised American public opinion would have been some sign that Moscow wanted a German peace treaty.

In fact, it could be said that Gen. Marshall's mission to Moscow was to tell the Kremlin that Washington was tired of appeasement and pussy-footing and ready to let realities speak for themselves. He was backed up with a presidential recommendation for assistance to Greece and Turkey and evidence that this country accepts responsibility as the only surviving naval power, wherever Great Britain feels it must withdraw. He was even equipped with evidence that the United States is about to get rid of communists in its official personnel and the absurd notion that a minority of strikers have the right to induce national paralysis.

Progress or the lack of it in negotiations with Moscow is no longer a matter of concern. It must be assumed there will be no progress. Until evidence to the contrary is given, Americans will expect nothing from the existing government of Russia but obstructionism.

But they know now that their own government intends to meet this obstructionism at least half way. It will do everything within its power to exert its influence unilaterally wherever the Soviet Union is plainly trying to expand its own influence. The question is how much lies within the power of the United States. Americans are not going to find security outside their own borders; that dream has been dissolved. They must find it within themselves—within the potentialities of the only remaining free society with resources large enough to change the course of history for the better.

Disaster In Texas

Texas City, an important sub-capital of the Houston industrial empire, lies in ruins, razed by a chain of explosions which started aboard a ship in the harbor and swept through huge chemical installations on shore. Hard hit by a tornado just a few days ago, Texas faces this new disaster.

Texas City is in one of the fastest-growing districts in the nation. A fine climate, sulphur, petroleum, cotton, sugar, shipping, and magnesium extracted from Gulf waters, plus strong Texan pride, have built the district from a swampy wasteland in less than 25 years.

Texas City is a mass of ruins today, but, Texas being what it is, a new and more impressive city will rise in its place.

Pork Wages

Experts see the price of pork, a favorite talking point of union wage negotiators, sagging by June. This is embarrassing.

It raises a question hanging fire a long time: What will union wage negotiators use for a talking point when prices start down, as they eventually will?

They've done their best. "We must have a raise of umpteen percentage points because the cost of living has risen umpteen percentage points."

It was a tricky argument. It was double-edged. It was the sheerest kind of expediency. It was a short-sighted kind of automatic inflation, and it created the certainty that sometime it would be used in reverse.

If and when the price of pork sags, if and when the government quits holding up the price of potatoes, if and when prices in general start down, management negotiators are going to argue, with a twinkle in each eye, "You boys must take a cut of umpteen percentage points because the cost of living has gone down umpteen percentage points."

It's going to be tough eating those words when the time comes—as tough as high-priced pork.

Free Speech and the A. Y. D.

College officials and school boards are requested by the House committee on un-American activities to watch for Communist tactics on the part of American Youth for Democracy. It is "neither American nor democratic in its origin or purposes," the committee said.

This presents a problem to the school official who asks himself: "Shall I give free reign to discussion groups among the students?" If he answers no, he lays himself open to the charge of stifling free speech. If he answers yes, he opens the way for skilled and eloquent Communist parliamentarians to take command, effecting discussions along lines they choose and muffling all opposition. Communists are in favor of free speech only as long as they are in the minority.

With these alternatives, the school officials should not have to do too much soul-searching to decide youth discussion groups should have supervision to keep them out of the hands of the A. Y. D. Free speech is a relative term. If several bull-headed comrades, briefed on the latest communiques from Union Square, take charge, speech will be free only for them.

Counselor Byrnes

Announcement that James F. Byrnes is entering private law practice recalls the quip that made the rounds when he resigned in January as secretary of state. A wisacre questioned whether he was just plain sick, as was announced, or sick of the Russians.

Whatever his reason for resigning, Mr. Byrnes had a thankless task sparring with the Russians and did not as well as anyone could. After a round of negotiations with the enigmatic Muscovites, a man might feel as if he had been trying to string beads while wearing boxing gloves.

In government posts of great responsibility, Mr.

Byrnes has given generously of his time. With his legal and diplomatic background, he should find private law practice simple by comparison.

The Stars Say
For Saturday, April 19
By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

AN involved, tricky and aggravating combination of events and circumstances call for most astute, well-considered and organized handling and plans to avert disaster, loss and much regret and misery.

Confused thinking and irritable, reckless and emotional behavior, will but enlarge the prospect of dangers. The roots of this may be found in treachery, betrayal or false values.

Sidestep such intrigue and pernicious entanglements. Good judgment, supported by patience and diligence, should triumph at last.

If It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is are likely to find themselves in a difficult and complicated year, in which danger, loss and disagreeable entanglements may be avoided by patience and good judgment and by rationalizing obscure and involved conditions.

An under-current of duplicity and schemes may come to light by shrewd and persistent effort, well organized and enforced.

GUARDING YOUR HEALTH

If Tumor Occurs In the Nose

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.
WE do not usually think of tumors in connection with the nose and yet, they may arise here, just as in other parts of the body. As elsewhere, they may be cancerous or benign, that is not deadly.

They may arise from blood vessels, from cartilage or from bone. Some are in the nature of a cyst, that is, a membranous sac filled with water.

Many of these tumors may be present for some time before they cause any symptoms. However, sooner or later they will cause blocking of the nasal passages with, at times, bleeding and some deformity of the nose. The tumor may grow so that it fills up both sides of the nose and even extend into the sinuses or air spaces connected with the nose.

Deciding on Treatment
Before deciding upon the treatment to be used when such a tumor is present the doctor will usually remove a small piece of it and examine it under the microscope to determine what sort of growth it is. The treatment also will depend on the size, the location of the tumor and the age and general condition of the patient.

A tumor that can be easily reached and which is small is easily removed, merely by cutting it off and using the electric current to cauterize the place where the tumor was attached. A large tumor also may be removed by electrocoagulation, that is, destroy with the electric current.

One of the more serious types of tumors is known as a fibroma and is made up of connective tissue like scar tissue. Such a growth may form quite a large mass not only in the nose but also in the upper part of the throat.

Another Type
Another type of tumor is known as a hemangioma and is made up of blood vessels. These tumors may affect either the inside or outside of the nose. They often produce a great deal of bleeding and blocking of the nasal passages.

Most of the cancerous-like tumors which occur in the nose extend from the sinuses or from the upper part of the throat. However, now and then one of these growths may start in the nose itself.

Many such tumors can be easily eliminated if they are discovered early and treated promptly. The treatment consists either in exposure to X-ray or the use of electrocoagulation.

There are, of course, other causes of blocking of the nasal passages besides tumors. Hence, when this symptom develops it is important that a careful study be made at once by a nose and throat specialist to determine the cause of the trouble. The more thought that cancer can occur in this location should prevent any delay.

DEMAND REMOVAL OF AGRICULTURE HEAD

COLUMBUS, April 18.—A spokesman for Ohio Democrats called on Gov. Thomas J. Herbert today to remove Agriculture Director Frank J. Farnsworth and his special assistant, Edwin J. Bath, because of "hostility toward the Ohio Farm Bureau federation."

Clarence H. Knisley, director of Democratic state headquarters, also said in a letter to Herbert that Rep. Elton Kile (R-Madison), an official of the national tax equality league, was "using the (state) department of agriculture to further his opposition to the bureau."

"This is an unhealthy situation in the great state of Ohio, particularly when 53,000 farm families are being involved through no fault of their own in a private and personal feud between officials of a state department a non-political and independent organization," Knisley said.

Bath and Farnsworth have been under fire since Bath, former Farm Bureau lobbyist, criticized policies of the organization at a senate committee hearing on legislation to reorganize the agriculture department.

Alaska was first visited by the Russians in 1741.

Walter Schwartz, 80, Observes Birthday

Today was the 80th milestone in the life of Walter Schwartz, Ellsworth rd., who is well known in this district.

Mr. Schwartz received many gifts and greeting cards in celebration of the event.

In good health for one of his years, Schwartz makes a specialty of growing sweetpeas and asters. Today he prepared the ground for his sweetpea bed.

A native of Westville, he came to Salem at the age of 12 with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Schwartz. His father was a Civil War veteran.

For two years he worked after school and on Saturdays in the Baldwin grocery store, which was located where the postoffice building now stands.

Afterwards, he was employed at the C. R. Phillips drug store for the same hours.

A graduate of the Pittsburgh College of Pharmacy, he was employed at the Bolger & French drug store, now the Lease Broadway drug store, for 17 years.

Schwartz spent 12 years in New Mexico on account of ill health, during the 35 years he was away from Salem.

Active Church Worker

Always active in church work, he was secretary of the New Mexico State Sunday School association for six years, and financial secretary of the First Christian church, Canton, for seven years. He is an elder in the Christian church and teacher of its Old People's class.

After his return to Salem, Schwartz was employed by the Salem Builders Supply Co., and the Salem Wall Paper & Paint Co.

Living on a small farm on the Canfield rd., for 10 years, he specialized in growing flowers. Mrs. Schwartz, the former Mattie Miller, died there four years ago.

Since then Schwartz has been spending his winters with his only son, Rev. Craig W. Schwartz and family, at North Tonawanda, N. Y. He has a foster daughter, Mrs. Joseph Justice, teacher in the Leetonia schools.

Cardinal Rules for Well-Dressed Girl Disregard Fashion's Fancies

By ALICIA HART

DON'T go overboard for fashion's fads and fancies, if you strive to be well-dressed, says Mrs. Walter Thornton.

Three times chosen one of America's "best-dressed" by the Fashion Academy, Mrs. Thornton is qualified to give helpful advice. This she sums up in a few cardinal rules:

1. Shut your mind and your closet door to any kind of newcomers that don't "go" with what you already have. Mis-matches will either spoil your wardrobe or make you spend more money for costume mates.

2. Invest in background clothes, if you want to look well-dressed and to save money. These are dresses and suits built on classically simple lines. They may be kept in style year after year by simple alterations that make basic clothes conform to trends. Audience interest in such clothes may be renewed by adding a change of accessories.

3. The dress items to splurge on are hats and handbags. A beautiful bonnet and a good bag can give a lift to any dress or suit.

4. Choose simple shoes. They'll never let a costume down.

5. Know what your figure is like.

MRS. THORNTON: Best-dressed.

Admit faults, if there are any, and accept only those clothes which camouflage them. Or be as ready to admit figure perfection, and buy clothes to glorify a tiny waist, trim hips or a long torso.

* WE, THE WOMEN

BY RUTH MILLETT

HANDING out bouquets to women isn't the order of the day. The popular pastime is hurling brickbats at them, calling them neurotic, and blaming them for at least three-fourths of what's wrong with the world.

But in spite of that, this is going to be a bow to today's homemakers, the ones who are cleverly turning trailers, bare barracks, run-down houses, and cramped apartments into bright, shining, livable homes. And their scrubbing pails, buckets of paint, yards of slipcover and curtain material, and their determination to defeat drabness and inconvenience.

They could, of course, leave their makeshift homes looking makeshift. Nobody would blame them, since the homes are only temporary.

THEY HAVE EARNED IT INSTEAD of enduring the drabness and shabbiness of what they can find today and sitting around thinking of the real home they want, they are making real homes out of what they have.

The gay curtains at the windows of trailers and barracks are the flags they fly in triumph. Those banners say, "We came. We saw. We conquered."

It isn't the order of the day to praise women, but let's give these young homemakers a vote of confidence. They certainly have earned it.

BUTCH GOES BACK ON THE BUM AND . . .

Butch was so beaten down that even a fresh kitten could give him the Bronx cheer.

Young friends, like John Dauphinee, above, enjoyed daily rides on Butch and were sad when he wouldn't play with them anymore.

Two by two, Butch gulps Egon Larsen's hamburgers. They helped restore his pep.

his many friends in Glen Cove, N. Y., are happy. Butch is a 240-pound St. Bernard, who has been living "on the town" for several years. Nicknamed "the Squire," he is from eight to 12 years old and recently showed signs of infirmity. His appetite slackened, his steps faltered and he refused to allow children to ride on his back. Friends were worried. So Egon and Elnor Larson, at whose restaurant Butch generally made his headquarters, passed the hat. With the money, the dog was sent to a veterinarian. Now, after vitamin shots for rheumatism, he's his old self—a beloved bum.

Wednesday. The baby has been named Jeffrey Lynn. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Filp of Beloit and Miss Jane Berger of North Georgetown were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Griffith Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Cobbs of Beloit called on her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Jones, Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Luella Phillips has returned from Florida where she spent the winter.

but not company-wide agreements, in nearly all cases.

3. Rule out mass picketing and violence in picketing.

4. Authorize expulsion of Communists from union membership. Unions could not be recognized for bargaining if any officer is, ever has been or could "reasonably be regarded" as a Communist or a sympathizer.

5. Prohibit the involuntary check-off system of collecting union dues—that is, employed deduction of dues without the worker's written consent.

6. Outlaw health and welfare funds administered solely by unions.

7. Prohibit any federal employee from striking or encouraging a strike under penalty of losing his job and all his civil service rights.

8. Give notice he will attempt on the senate floor to restore provisions knocked out of the committee bill by a group led by Senators Ives (R-NY) and Morse (R-Conn). They are:

A flat ban on jurisdictional strikes and secondary boycotts.

A restriction on industry-wide bargaining which would forbid any national union to dictate contract terms to its locals. This would apply, for example, to John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers.

A ban on union-administered health and welfare funds.

Making it an unfair labor practice for unions to coerce or interfere with workers in the exercise of their collective bargaining rights.

Narcotics Ring Broken

CLEVELAND, April 18.—Four men believed to be members of a dope ring were in custody today after a raid which netted what agents of the U. S. Narcotic Service described as the biggest haul here in the last decade.

The agents confiscated an estimated $15,000 in narcotics at the homes of three of the four. The fourth was arrested later at his home.

Raymond J. Ripberger, agent-in-charge, said the four arrested are in Chinese restaurants.

Lisbon Driver Fined $100

LISBON, April 18.—James Cox, Lisbon R. D. 4, arrested Saturday afternoon by Officer Roy Patterson on a charge of driving while intoxicated, entered a plea of guilty when arraigned before Mayor G. C. Rauch yesterday and was fined $100 and costs. Cox was arrested after he struck a parked car on S. Market st. and then drove away from the scene of the accident.

CRISIS

improvised morgues in mute hope of finding relatives and friends, to stare at ruined homes and stores.

Two tanks of propane, a petroleum gas, which had earlier been believed to have been in danger of exploding, apparently had been rendered harmless by the removal of their caps. Laddis said he had learned from "reliable sources" that the caps had been removed after the original harbor blast.

John H. Hill said that the Humble Oil Co. had abandoned hope of saving any portion of the storage tank farm.

Rescue workers evacuated the explosion area late yesterday and were issued gas masks against the possible spread of poisonous fumes from further explosions.

271 Bodies Found

Two hundred and seventy-one bodies had been counted late last night and 194 had been identified.

Fire Capt. J. B. Ruby of Houston estimated that anywhere from 75 to 100 bodies remained in the Monsanto plant alone.

A Coast Guard board prepared today to investigate the explosion on the Grand Camp. It consists of Rear Adm. G. T. Finlay, New Orleans, chairman; Capt. Joseph A. Kerrins, Washington, and Lt. Com. H. F. Cobb, of Galveston. William T. Butler, Washington, is technical advisor.

Memorial services for all of the dead will be held tomorrow at 6 p. m. on the football field, with the city's ministerial alliance conducting the service.

E. Liverpool Man Named Atom Group Comptroller

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Paul M. Green of East Liverpool, O., has been appointed comptroller of the atomic energy commission, it was announced today.

He will direct the accounting, auditing and fiscal programs of the commission and serve as staff adviser to the general manager on field operations. Formerly deputy commissioner of accounting of the Office of Price Administration, he has been connected with the OPA since October, 1941.

Previously he taught at the University of Florida and the University of Illinois.

Washington Solon Dies

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Rep. Fred Norman, Washington state Republican, died today. He was 67.

The Germans fashioned it into one of the strongest naval bases in the world and in August of 1914, one of the great naval battles of history was fought nearby, the result of which was that the German grand fleet did not afterwards venture beyond home waters.

Helgoland Island Base Destroyed

CUXHAVEN, Germany, April 18.—British demolitions blew up today the island base of Helgoland, German Gibraltar of the North Sea.

Watchers in this seaport 38 miles across the water from the former German naval base saw a towering grey column of smoke rise over Helgoland at 1:01 p. m. (E.O.) a. m. EST. Two minutes later three dull thumping explosions were heard, sounding like blasts in a quarry. The British had announced months ago their intention to destroy the naval stronghold.

Crowds along the mainland strand soon saw heavy smoke billow higher and higher until it reached a peak of several hundred yards. Sailors climbed to the mast tops of their vessels to get a better view.

Burgomaster Karl Oivers said the destruction had caused sorrow and indignation among the Germans of this city.

Helgoland, which means "holy land," covers only about a fifth square mile of territory off the mouths of the Elbe and Weser rivers. The British seized the island from Denmark in 1807 and ceded it to Germany in 1890 in return for German recognition of British sovereignty in Zanzibar.

Washingtonville

Rev. T. P. Laughner, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Leetonia, will conduct services Sunday evening in Trinity Lutheran church. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Eyster of Salem are the parents of a daughter, Darlene Kay, born Tuesday evening at City hospital. The mother is the former Anna May Helman and Mr. Eyster was a former Washingtonville resident.

Mrs. John Volpe was hostess to the Bethel class of the Methodist church Wednesday evening. The business meeting was in charge of Mrs. John King. It was voted on to give $10 towards financing of the church insurance.

Mrs. Ray Davis gave an article on "Bible Flowers at the Altar" a social period followed with Mrs. Harve Bush, Mrs. Glenn Jackson, Mrs. Ted Newton, Miss Eunice Stouffer and Mrs. Russell Smith sharing honors in the contests. Refreshments were served. The May meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Carl Lambright.

LISBON BRIEFS

The annual "ladies night" was observed by the Lisbon Kiwanis club last evening in the diningroom of the Christian church.

The program featured Joseph Penner, vibro-harp artist of Warren, and feats of magic by William Ross, Salem magician.

Special guests included Tenth Division Lt. Governor and Mrs. Charles Vance of Steubenville, and Ohio

DISASTER SIDELIGHTS

(By Associated Press)

Texas City probably was the most heavily guarded city in the world last night. One fourth of the persons there were law enforcement officers.

State and national guardsmen, county and city officers, policemen from Houston, Galveston and other areas, numbered about 500. They were stationed everywhere and patrolled endlessly.

Only an estimated 1,500 Texas City residents of the town's total population before explosions wrecked the community were at home.

The Texas City Sun published "disaster editions" Wednesday and yesterday. Yesterday's single page edition, printed in the plant's own repaired shop, disappeared quickly and has become a collector's item.

Otis Cowan, editor and manager, said continued publication was not easy. Several of the staff were injured and the plant damaged. The Wednesday edition, the day the inital explosions occurred, was printed in nearby Goose Creek. It also was one page.

Messages of sympathy continue to pour into Texas. Latest received by Gov. Beauford H. Jester at Austin were from Gov. Robert F. Bradford of Massachusetts, Martin Luis Drago, charge d'affaires of Argentina, Mayor James M. Curley of Boston, General Dwight Eisenhower, Gov. James E. Folsom of Alabama and Gov. James L. McConaughy of Connecticut.

COLUMBIANA, April 18.—The first of the traffic gates being provided by the American Legion post for the protection of school children are being installed by Street Commissioner Walter Thomas at E. Main and Elm.

This installation will be in the nature of an experiment to determine whether any changes in the set-up may be required.

War On Stray Dogs

In response to complaints of dogs running at large, the Columbiana dog warden was in town Tuesday, and as a result, city council at its meeting Tuesday evening directed that owners of dogs be reminded that canines running loose are liable to be taken up.

Council directed that trucks blocking streets anywhere in town while loading or unloading shall receive tickets.

Drainage conditions on Fifth ave. in the north part of town have been remedied in accordance with directions by council, and the section complained of has been surfaced with asphalt.

A committee of council which made a study of wages of municipal employees in neighboring towns of comparable size found that all were in line except Patrolman Ed. Kock and Sexton Brown of the cemetery, who were raised, respectively, from $175 a month to $195 and from $160 to $175.

Murder Charge Faces Vet For Killing Infant

COLUMBUS, April 18.—First degree murder charges were filed yesterday against a 32-year-old former paratrooper, Thomas Marion Craft, in connection with the death of his year-old nephew, Stephen J. Killen.

Capt. Glen C. Hoffman, chief of Columbus detectives, and Detective Lieut. Arthur Loudenslager said that Craft had admitted killing the baby in the bathroom of his home by forcing a rubber shower extension hose down Stephen's throat and turning on the water.

Craft, a baker, said he killed the child because he had "a big load on my head and have worried about expenses."

Craft, himself the father of three children, said that he had borne expenses of purchasing a home, plus costs of maintaining his own family, Stephen, and the infant's mother, Maxine Killen, a sister-in-law, Hoffman reported.

Hoffman quoted Craft as relating that he took Stephen to the bathroom to wash his face after the child coiled his shirt while crying at the luncheon table.

"For some unknown reason I lost my head," Hoffman quoted him.

Quakers Seek Funds For Overseas Relief

An appeal for funds to aid them in their overseas relief work was made in Salem today by the American Friends Service committee.

"Unless the American people are awakened to the situation quickly and respond more generously to the needs of the private agencies, the lives of countless men, women and children overseas cannot be sustained," the Quaker committee's message said.

"In our own case, we have already been forced to curtail purchasing food for children in Poland, tuberculosis patients in Vienna, and young people in Budapest. Programs in other countries must also be restricted until additional funds come in."

Quaker volunteers personally supervise the distribution of supplies to those in greatest need, regardless of race, religion or politics.

Senate Approves Election Change

COLUMBUS, April 18.—The senate yesterday passed 30 to 1 and sent to the house a bill by Sen. Carl D. Sheppard (R-Summit) extensively revising Ohio election laws.

Besides increasing pay of election officials, the measure provides for grouping independent candidates together on the ballot under a column separate from regular party aspirants, rotation of group candidates' names on general election ballots as well as primary lists, and requires residence in the county and precinct 40 days to be eligible to vote, in addition to one year residence in the state.

The pay of election board members would be increased from $12 to $25 for each full 1,000 of the first 100,000 county population, with the maximum boosted from $4,200 to $4,500.

Clerks would get top pay boosts of $75 monthly in counties of more than 150,000 population and $50 in smaller counties. Deputy clerks would receive maximum increases of $50 a month and other employees $45.

Second Guessing

DEPARTMENT OF INFORMATION

Fans who have been down Reilly stadium may recently have noticed that the turf on the football field is unusually thin for this time of the year.

The situation is causing Custodian Frank Stoudt no end of trouble, for it seems energetic baseball or softball players are using the football field as a practice field after Stoudt closes the stadium each evening.

Great damage is being done to the grass that is just getting a good start, Stoudt says.

High school officials are requesting softball and baseball teams to refrain from using the stadium field for practice. Unless the practice workouts cease there, officials say, there will be practically no grass in the center of the field by next football season.

The annual fall work was delayed last season because of the special Thanksgiving day game and without exceptional care there isn't much hope for a good topping by fall.

DIAMOND DUST DEPARTMENT

Wellsville and East Liverpool apparently are the only county high schools sporting baseball teams this season. The two schools will meet in a game Friday.

Coach Mearl Atkins of Wellsville writes that the telephone strike has made things tough in the scheduling department and consequently the Bengals are a bit light on games just now.

Atkins requests that any team wishing to tangle with the Bengals write the athletic department at Wellsville High as soon as possible. They are particularly interested in home and away arrangements, Atkins says.

OUT OF THE WIGWAM

Cleveland Indian fans are hailing James Patrick Seery as the "new" find this season and their opinion seems to be backed up by an impressive list of fellows who should know.

Although Seery isn't actually a new man at Cleveland (it's his fifth season with the Tribe) he is new in the sense that he seems to have found his hitting power. This may or may not be traceable to the teachings of Roger Hornsby at Tucson this spring, but whatever the cause spring games have shown that Seery seems headed for a great hitting season.

In spring games Seery hit 318, 27 hits in 85 trips to the plate. He slugged out 10 home runs in that period, nine of them in the final 12 games of the grapefruit circuit.

Mike Tresh, veteran catcher of the Chicago White Sox, is loud in his praise of Seery after seeing him in nine exhibition games. "He is the most improved ball player I've ever seen in my life. There's no doubt in my mind that he'll be terrific this summer. I just wish we had him," Mike said recently.

Others who see a big year for fat Pat include Charlie Grimm of the Cubs, Ted Lyons of the White Sox and Hornsby, the teacher.

In 1946 the big boy whiffed one time out of every four at the plate. In training this season he missed 17 times in 85 trips, but was walked a similar number of times.

ODDS AND ENDS

Hank Oehlschlaeger of Columbiana, an ardent Booster, headed a four man committee which recently feted the Clippers, the coaches and other high school officials in record style.

Hank is an old timer in baseball circles and formerly starred in the Cleveland church league back in 1913. Ray Reasbeck reports that player complaints to officials in the recent tournament at the Memorial building were unusually low this year. The reason isn't known, Ray says, but the fans came up with the majority of the riding this year.

SOFTBALL ENTRY TO CLOSE 24TH; 20 TEAMS IN 'A'

Managers Make Plans For Season, Set Next Meeting for Final Set-up

An April 24 deadline was set for entering Class A teams in the city leagues at a meeting of the team managers in the Memorial building Thursday night.

Seventeen teams were represented at the meeting, conducted by League Manager Joe M. Kelly. Those on hand represented the following squads: Leetonia, Washingtonville, White Cottage, V. F. W., Diner, Hannays Studio, Recreation, Electric Furnace, Fratillas, Ehrharts, National Grocery, Saxons, Demings, AMVETS, Jaycees, Salem Tool and last year's Bowling Center team, which has not procured a sponsor as yet. Three other teams, Mullins, Printz club and Golden Eagle, have given intentions of entering, but were not represented at the meeting. They rounded out a proposed 20-team loop.

Jim Aldom, spokesman for the league's five man investigating committee, reported on the progress made toward beginning construction at the new West End diamond.

The Kintz Construction Co. is expected to begin the initial grading of the diamond Monday, according to Aldom. He also said that the company which is furnishing the lights has sent its engineers to Salem this week to look over the layout. They decided to place the home plate of the diamond in the southwest corner of the field.

Eight poles, with three lamps each, will be placed about the playing field. The outfield poles will be 240 feet from the plate.

Kelly indicated that he hopes to begin play on the new field by May 5, if work progresses satisfactorily and weather permits.

The managers group will meet next Thursday in the Memorial building.

Jr. Legion To Practice

Members and coaches of the American Legion Junior baseball team will play a practice game at Centennial park at 2:30 p. m. Saturday.

Players and coaches also are requested to report to the Legion home, E. State st., at 2:30 p. m. Sunday for a showing of the 1946 World Series games films. Any boy under 18 years is invited.

Pirates Return Home In Tie For First; Brooklyn Remains On Top With Win

By JACK HAND
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

The same old Hank Greenberg!

That was the cry echoing around Wrigley field yesterday as Big Hank, who was coaxed out of "retirement" by Pittsburgh, lofted a Hank Wyse pitch into the left field bleachers for his first National league home run.

"They throw curve balls in the American league, too," Greenberg told springtime questioners who asked if he thought he would be bothered by the old No. 2 pitch. He gave them the rest of the answer in Chicago.

With the help of Hank's second-inning clout and six unearned runs on two hits by Lenny Merullo in the seventh inning, Billy Herman brings his Pirates home, tied for first place with Brooklyn and the Phillies. The Cubs' only run of the abbreviated series came in the ninth inning of yesterday's 7-1 defeat, at the hands of Preacher Roe.

Brooklyn came up with a new "find" in third baseman Johnny (Spider) Jorgensen, who knocked in six runs with two doubles and a homer in the Dodgers' 12-6 win over Boston. A leaky infield put loser Mort Cooper on the ropes in the first inning and Kirby Higbe, the winner, was flattened in a four-run Boston spurt in the sixth. Jackie Robinson came up with his first big league hit, a bunt single off Glenn Elliott in the fifth.

Dutch Leonard turned in a workmanlike job for the Phillies in his first start, recovering from a poor start for an 11-5 victory over New York as his mates pounded loser Bill Ayers, Larry Jensen and Woody Abernathy for 14 blows.

The Boston Red Sox showed unmistakable signs of picking up where they left off last season, dumping Washington, 4-1 with Joe Dobson doing the honors. The veteran right-hander was helped by sharp Red Sox fielding while the boys hopped on Mickey Haefner for all four runs in the first two innings.

Floyd Revens, the New York Yankees' "hard luck artist" of 1946 got a break in his first start although he had to throw a three-hitter at Philadelphia to win 2-1. Ferris Fain, noted Larry Beres' grounder to let in the winning run in the eighth. Dick Fowler was the loser.

Rookie Paul Lehner, a highly recommended prospect, came through with a pinch single with the bases loaded and two out for the St. Louis Browns' 4-3 edge over Detroit in the 10th inning. Jack Kramer went all the way to decision Paul Trout, who homered in his own behalf in the fifth.

Under Voigts, football will include book work as well as blocking and tackling. The Wildcat mentor believes the notebook idea will help players learn more quickly.

"Instead of passing out mimeographed copies of plays, the boys will copy them from the blackboard and keep them in their notebooks," he said.

Yesterday's Stars

Batting, John Jorgensen, Dodgers — Rookie third baseman batted in six runs with two doubles and three-run homer and scored twice in 12-6 victory over Braves.

Pitching—Kent Peterson, Reds — Relieved Everett Lively in first inning and held World Champion Cardinals to three hits the rest of the way in earning 9-4 decision.

Wife's Bowling Ball Teaches Follow Through

ST. LOUIS—Stanley Cronin was late for the weekly bowling session with the boys. He dashed in, whipped his bowling ball out of its bag, made a good approach to the alley, and went skidding far down the slippery boards with his thumb stuck in the ball.

"A mis-step?" asked one of his companions helping him up. "No," Cronin said ruefully, squinting at the sphere, "my wife's ball."

JET PILOT HEADS FOR DERBYTOWN

NEW YORK, April 17.—Jet Pilot left town on the Louisville train today, and in his traveling bag he no doubt carried his personal horse-shoe or four-leaf clover, or whatever it is a gee-gee uses for a lucky piece.

He's the first of the east's glamorous boy gallahoppers to head for derbytown. And off his front-running, two-lengths win in the Jamaica handicap yesterday he looks about as good as there is around here, pending later word from fellows like Cosmic Bomb, the winter book favorite, or Phalanx, the stretch-runner, or Blue Border and Sup-father, the recent fancy flop-olas, in the Wood Memorial Saturday.

The $41,000 yearling bargain boosted his bankroll over the $100,000 mark with yesterday's $12,500 pay check.

AUSTIN, Tex.—A bounding discus struck an Oklahoma half-miler on the leg in the Texas Relays, frightening him into running a 1:54.5 half-mile.
